

New (Reasonably Priced) Kids Studio in Carroll Gardens

Hello BoCoCa! We've been off doing summer stuff for the past few weeks but realized it's time to consider getting back into the swing of things. And, like us, you may be thinking about getting the kids back to school/planned activities. Not that we don't thoroughly enjoy having them around all day everyday. But, you know, all good things come to an end.

In this spirit, we are stoked to see another new outlet for children's activities opening in Carroll Gardens. Who's on First is what the owners call an "Enrichment Studio" and is located in a renovated brownstone at 46 1st Place between Clinton and Henry St. The mother and daughter co-owner team are natives of the hood and believe their space and curriculum are warm and special in comparison to the larger, franchised studios. Classes are focused in the Arts - Music, Art, Yoga, Creative Movement and Playgroups (drop-off, drop-in and caregiver included) for children birth to seven years--and come the Spring semester, they plan on expanding classes to offer Music, Art and Yoga therapy for developmentally challenged children.

Price breaks for siblings and multiple classes have convinced us to give it a shot this fall, and we love that they will be offering the space for reasonably priced birthday parties on weekends (don't get me started on the price of parties in BoCoCa!). Siblings under 10 months are automatically registered for free.

Want to check it out? There is an Open House everyday until 16 Sept. from 11am to 1pm or feel free to give them a call at (718) 243-1432.
